Northamptonshire Archaeological Society: Northampton Archaeology Journal Vol. 32

His tenure formed part of a substantial documented history of the site for the later post-medieval period.

The Romano

There must have been a single source that contained both the Eutropian material and the deviations common to Jerome and the other works.

Brigstock

A very indistinct subrectangular enclosure, covering about 1. The common fields of the parish were enclosed by Act of Parliament of 1795 NRO, Enclosure Map of 1805. The cellar was succeeded by a Saxon-Norman timber building on the same alignment, although the larger part of the site was open ground, and the roads appear to have been less formally defined.

About Stanion Village

It has a broadly based membership, drawn from over forty countries and from all ages and walks of life.

Brigstock

This pottery industry supplied much of Northamptonshire and counties beyond. In the late second or early third century the building was abandoned. These included glazed jugs, face pots, jars and bowls.

About Stanion Village

During the digging of a pit, Roman pottery and part of a quern were found BNFAS, 5 1971 , 7.
