Polish Greatness (Blog): SIKORSKI: DEATH OF A POLISH PRIME MINISTER

Violation of weight regulations was, however, tolerated due to wartime transportation difficulties, and pilots were encouraged to take responsibility for flights with overloaded aircraft.

Accident : the death of General Sikorski : Irving, David John Cawdell, 1938

During his career as a pilot he had never worn a life vest while flying, but did so on the night of July 4th, 1943. The Appendix starts with the facsimiles of the Inquiry header form 'RAF Form 412' giving court, witnesses, deaths in the crash etc, but it is hard to read. Acrobat pdf format, 9 pages with 2 figures including his map recalled of the airfield.

Roberto Abraham Scaruffi: Letter from Lhasa, number 115. (Irving 1967): Accident. The death of General Sikorski

Suddenly I discovered I was not able to pull the stick back.

1943 Gibraltar Liberator AL523 crash

The Polish authorities gave little credence to this Moscow statement: if these details had been known to the Russians all along, why had they not told this to Sikorski and his representatives when they had repeatedly inquired the fate of the Polish officers? Loat checked the weather at about nine A. One theory can be ruled out. Loat throttled back the engines at once, thankful that he had not begun his take-off run; he looked out of his side window, and operated his control column, but there was no movement from the elevators at all.

Roberto Abraham Scaruffi: Letter from Lhasa, number 115. (Irving 1967): Accident. The death of General Sikorski

The Polish government refused to endorse this report because of the contradictions cited therein, and the lack of conclusive findings.
