Pope: New Evangelization depends on good Catholic families

Q: Is this, therefore, the answer to secularization? Many particular Churches dioceses, eparchies, Churches sui juris and various episcopal conferences and synods of the Eastern Churches have for the past several years evaluated their programmes in proclaiming and witnessing to the faith. Go Make Disciples is the most far-reaching attempt to harness the resources of the within in the service of the new evangelisation called for by all the modern popes since.

St. John Paul II Foundation

When speaking of education, the responses describe a Church who has much to contribute and who has a concept of education she has managed to spread throughout the world, namely, that the person and his formation are primary and that she desires to provide a genuine education that is open to the truth, including the encounter with God and a faith-experience. Announcing and proclaiming is not the task of any one person or a select few, but rather a gift given to every person who answers the call to faith.

An attentive and shared discernment process is needed not only to better assess the possibilities of their use in proclaiming the Gospel, but also to understand properly the risks and dangers involved. Argüello: What is next is to be able to offer ourselves to bishops, now with the guarantee that this is something of the Church for the new evangelization. The responses provided an impressive list of initiatives undertaken by various ecclesial realities.
