Self Care for Parents

Remind yourself that the person would express gratitude if they were able. For reasons of privacy and incompatibility, neither of us had wanted to live together plus, the stairways in my home made her moving in near impossible.

Tips for finding an in

While it can be difficult to keep social appointments with friends and family in the face of medical caretaking, it is important to maintain social connections to feel less isolated and prevent burnout.

A Guide to Caring for Elderly Parents

Some of these so-called assisted living structures come with monitoring systems. Aging is a fact of life and it affects all families. Lack of time or energy can make getting that time away particularly challenging.

Caregiver Stress and Burnout

I am not suggesting you become minimalists, but I am suggesting that NOW is the time to get rid of the useless stuff accumulating in your attics, basements and closets.

A Guide to Caring for Elderly Parents

When you get less, your mood, energy, productivity, and ability to handle stress will suffer. Get information about managing their finances from the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau. Amenities provided include gyms, clubhouse, yard maintenance, housekeeping and security in addition to transportation, laundry service, group meals and social activities.
