Silver jubilee mass

Ordained at English College, Lisbon for Diocese of Brentwood, 8 June 1963. He wove into his sermon quotations from the Curé of Ars, Pope John Paul II, and Pope Benedict. My grateful thanks are extended to those who contributed in any way - in particular to my mother Alice McGrattan, Bernard Aspinwall, Kevin Cunningham, Maggie Edmunds, Cathie Langan, Fathers , and Umberto Pasqualone, Rose McCann, Andrew McCarroll, Peter McCourt, Pat McKay, Bobby McVeigh, Ian Russell, Patrick Trayner and John Walsh who provided photographs etc or with the benefit of age recalled their memories to provide the accurate information required for a publication of this kind.

Silver jubilee mass

This church in Ayr was one of only five churches in the West of Scotland, stretching the length of the Ayrshire coast, to Glasgow and inland to Lanarkshire, which were in existence in 1840. The Guild has been active ever since. He was ordained on 20 March 1994.

In the concert which followed, it was noteworthy that every performer was a parishioner. This event was popular for many years but has since been discontinued. This was, of course, far from the truth as, in fact, he was the longest serving Parish Priest.

Jubilee Messages from Bishops and Clergy

As there was no presbytery beside the church, the priests lived at 9 South Crescent. Processions in the church grounds were another summer feature.

Golden Jubilee Book

The ship would sail to Rothesay via the Kyles of Bute with dancing to a band on board. During excavations carried out in 1911 on the remains of the church on Castle Hill a stone coffin was found. In 1946, Archbishop Mackintosh transferred from Saint John the Evangelist in Glasgow to be the first Parish Priest of Saint Peter in Chains.

Jubilee Mass

It was the second largest privately owned residential piece of land in Ardrossan, the largest being at Seafield Towers in Eglinton Road.

Jubilee Mass

Ordained at Saint Winin's, Kilwinning, 3 December 1980.
