European exploration

George Hunter shows how history of the Roman vs. Celtic way of church differs in reaching out to mankind. A brief revolt is put to an end when this group restores order by the massacre of the rebels.

Crossing Borders in the Insular Middle Ages

Celtic way of church differs in reaching out to mankind.

A Brief History of Penmanship on National Handwriting Day

It is also no wonder that, even though there were no cross-beam crucifixions, Christ was nevertheless symbolically crucified on a symbol of eternal life, a symbol of the serpent.

A Brief History of Penmanship on National Handwriting Day

In the foundation charter, William renounces all rights to the monastery, allows for the free election of the abbot by the monks, and places the monastery directly under the control of the Papal See.

European science in the Middle Ages

Importantly, in ancient societies the unsystematic array of household configurations did not allow for the formation of a stable familial or moral unit. People while they walk ask questions such as when, what or where about their life and find it is answered.
