Culture and Gender Roles in Society. Are Men and Women Equal?

Mrs Okwor, who is an associate of the late Dr Nnamdi Azikiwe, is now the leader of the Igbo Women Assembly and one-time member of Advisory Council of the Peoples Democratic Party PDP. Colonial rule transformed Igbo society, as portrayed in's novel. But the real intellectuals do not subscribe to the politics of the stomach.

'Stateless in Nigeria': A woman's dilemma

The giving of a name is usually the climax and conclusion of the ritual event. Yoruba and legends describe periods when women were either the actual kings or heroines. This includes carved ancestral stool among the Akan of Ghana and okpensi among the traditional Igbo.

Gender Roles in the Igbo Society

Russia provides African countries with extensive preferences in trade.

Nwanyibuike Flora Nwapa, Igbo Culture and Women's Studies

Similarly at initiation into important title positions, candidates take title and praise names which refer to important values in the community, or attributes for which the candidate has become distinguished in society.

Igbo Women Seek Biafra, Voice Nigeria's Bleak Future

Igbo Women have been able to hold up and find their place in the History of both Nigeria and Africa. Elements of Igbo culture can still be found in these places.
