Information in this document reflects 100% of the assets and operations of the company and its subsidiaries that were consolidated at the date or for the periods indicated, including non-controlling interests. The company delivered on its commitments, strengthened its customer focus, enhanced its social responsibility, shaped the future of aviation, and made marked progress on transforming into a digital leader.

Annual reporting archive

The Commission invests its excess cash in deposits with a major bank, treasury bills and in money market mutual funds. In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Commission on Preservation and Access as of June 30, 1991, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Annual reporting archive

The percentage of shared overhead costs charged to the Commission is negotiated annually.

CPA Annual Report: 1990

The Commission's operations are financed through contributions from academic and research institutions, and through general support grants and restricted grants from private foundations and other sources.

CPA Annual Report: 1990

It has also been tested in full and validated by a visually impaired expert. The company was incorporated in 1909 in England and Wales and changed its name to BP p.
