We don't know whether this is truth or no the reason we send the same letter back for you. Learning of the impending attack from his loyal troops, Colonel Drew began to saddle his horse and ordered his men to set themselves for a strategic withdrawal. There is no reason why we should split up and become involved in internal strife and violence on account of the political condition of the States.

Sustainable heritage development in the South African Cederberg

However, it is likely that the Baptist message spread among the Seminole along the same routes as it did among the full blood Creek and Cherokee.
