The single quality about it that impressed me the most is the relative sophistication of the narrator in the essential political, cultural and social aspects of London life. Which brings me to what I thought was most intriguing about the novel. This is one of those rare novels that make the reader feel Absolute Beginners is remarkable - a dream of a novel.

Absolute Beginners: Online Course

I adore meeting all the characters in the narrator's life, and 1958 London certainly looks wild and fun, but the author's injection of pathos gives this cult novel an authenticity that makes it universal.

Absolute Beginner English: 20 Point Program

The problem here is that the movie is too dark and risqué for the family crowd and too light-hearted and tame for the adult crowd. Unless you develop and print the film yourself you're not analog and you start with a generational loss by scanning.
