The cases covered by the ICJ judgment all involved heinous murders, including of young children. But it hardly shows disrespect for international law to oppose one international legal regime because it threatens to undermine another. The institution should be the one within a given jurisdiction which has the power to make such statements, such as the Department of State for the United States.

Universal Criminal Jurisdiction

For example, the passage of time as a defense to an international claim by a state on behalf of a national may not have had sufficient application in practice to be accepted as a rule of customary law.
