Collected Writings VOLUME II 1879

They are, if you like, a parlor enfantin of religion. A beautiful ornament for a room with pictures is German ivy.

Collected Writings VOLUME II 1879

Probably the first method of ornamenting textile fabrics was to stain them with the juices of fruits, or the flowers, leaves, stems, and roots of plants bruised with water, and we may reasonably assume that the primitive colors thus obtained would lack durability. The smoke is only invisible, because the combustion is so perfect.

Solution Essays

Nothing could be more contrary to its first principles than for the older and more capable children to combine to secure to themselves the highest advantages, enforcing the drudgeries on the younger, at the sacrifice of their equal culture.
