How to Choose a Program

Some learners obtain two degrees in social work by earning a BSW and then continuing to graduate school to earn an MSW.

Preparing for Graduate School: Here's What You Need to Know

However, given the proliferation of fraudulent and less reputable online programs, it's increasingly important to verify a school's accreditation status as part of your research process.

5 Reasons to Consider a Career in Social Work

Students can also take weekend classes at FAU's satellite campuses, and some courses may be available online. Accreditation Status: Accreditation indicates that a program fulfills all major social work education standards, and accreditation from multiple bodies often indicates a particularly strong, interdisciplinary program. It's much more important to apply to graduate programs where you are competitive and that support your specific goals while meeting your personal needs.

MSW

It means your professors utilize the best teaching practices available and are credentialed experts. Through student-elected representatives, you have the opportunity to raise issues with staff at our termly Board of Studies meetings. The role and nature of social work models and interventions will be explored, e.
