On All Hallows' Eve, Christians in some parts of the world visit cemeteries to pray and place flowers and candles on the graves of their loved ones. In Northern England, men paraded with noisemakers.

As We Celebrate Halloween, We're All Overdue for a Treat

Though many celebrate this time-honored holiday, very few actually understand where it came from. Imagine, why would a Christian celebrate a holiday that glorifies evil, focuses on darkness, death, FEAR, and demonism? God knows that harm and destruction await for those people who dare to play with Satan and his demons. The tradition of giving soul cakes that originated in Great Britain and Ireland was known as , often seen as the origin of modern in North America, and souling continued in parts of England as late as the 1930s, with children going from door to door singing songs and saying prayers for the dead in return for cakes or money.
