Another Goodreads members asked me what it was about The Gathering I didn't like. Neither did I feel moved by Breege's plight - I did not understand why she would fall for a callow bugger like Mick, to the extent of going hysterical, and no, the prose did not help me understand. So I skimmed through most of it, read the end, and was not impressed.

Wild Decembers

A Romeo and Juliet retelling cannot for me be as exciting as a new, original story. Comes from being on a sheep station. Wild Decembers is very hard to place in time.

Review

I couldn't read this book. One minor cavil is that the climactic action of the novel is foreshadowed so far in advance that there is little surprise when the dreaded event occurs. The story was fairly simple in nature.
