Little short of madness...(Quotation)

For a period far beyond the scope of this volume, rival attitudes toward internal improvements and conflicts over canal patronage kept the canal embroiled in state and local politics. Yellow fever and malaria had doomed earlier efforts, but American doctors were able significantly to reduce deaths from those and other diseases.

Over the next two hundred years, however, Americans would cultivate an entirely different approach to crops and consumption.

Martin Harris and Three Wise Men

There was no doubt that a financial crisis of the first order faced the Albany solons. Only in New York was the passage through the mountains sufficiently low only six hundred feet just east of Buffalo to encourage consideration of a water route.
