Decoding Liberation Quotes by Samir Chopra

Os objetivos dos Estudos do Software são quase sempre diferenciados dos da área da e da , que se preocupam inicialmente com o software aplicado à teoria da informação e com as aplicações práticas do software. Of particular interest are his comments on the interaction between FOSS philosophy and pedagogical imperatives something Scott and I looked at in Chapters 3 and 4 of DL with regards to writing code and computer science education respectively. We exclude that scientific structuralism is able to define module relations needed in software modular theories.
